

THE MEETING - April 19, 2009

The meeting began, with a large crowd of residents present. Councillor Kolodzie moved a motion to table the meeting until Councillor Pidwerbecki could attend. He was expected later in the day. The motion carried. Then those supporting the deal, moved a motion to adjourn the meeting. It carried thus ending the meeting with nothing accomplished.

For those of us who support consultation on this proposed deal. the non meeting allows us more time to spread the word.

Rather than waste the time of those who attended, Councillor Cullen and I conducted an impromptu town hall meeting and explained to those present, including the media, that the Communications Protocol instead of blocking consultation actually set a process for consultation ... See More

So in the end, nothing changed. The proposed deal is not approved and community consultation is not approved. If you want community consultation, you need to send email messages demanding this to the Mayor and all Council members and to encourage everyone you know to do the same.

Brian Nicholson
Oshawa