Let's call it the Anderson-Abernethy Incinerator

Mon Jun 02, 2008

To the editor:

I would like to suggest that the proposed incinerator be named the Anderson-Abernethy Incinerator so that in 10 years, when it's a huge financial and environmental mess (think Total Hockey times 10), we will remember who got us into this mess and whose feet to lay the blame at.

Health concerns aside, a $200-million investment for 30 permanent jobs is hardly the "fiscal responsibility" platform Jim Abernethy campaigned on. Every other municipality in Ontario has withdrawn from incineration as a way to deal with future waste. But not us.

The mayor and Roger Anderson should be ashamed of the way they are forcing this project on the unwilling residents of Clarington.
